

UCSC Art Shows

The recent works of nine UC Santa Cruz alumni artists will be shown on campus starting today and continuing through October 24. The exhibit will be in both the Smith Gallery at Cowell College and Sesnon Gallery at College Five.

Artists represented include Peter Carpou, Ralph D'Oliveira, Don Fritz, John Johnstone, Catherine Kanner, Susan Stauber, Don Strandberg, Stephen Tiffany and Elizabeth Tracy.

Organized by the staffs of both galleries, the alumni show is the first of a series of projects intended to give the community a firsthand look at the artistic progress of graduates from the UCSC Board of Studies in Art.

Both galleries will be open Tuesday through Sunday, 11-5. A public reception for the artists will be October 7, 2-4 p.m.

Selection of the artists was made by asking each member of the Art Board faculty to nominate one graduate whose work was thought exemplary.

Each artist showing graduated at least two years ago and has not participated in a major local exhibition during that time.
